

EVENT POLICIES

ACCESS TO RESIDUALS AND BIOSOLIDS

All participants must register and pay the applicable fee to be granted access to the virtual platform.

Residuals and Biosolids goes live on Tuesday, May 11. Pre-registered attendees will receive login credentials and instructions a few days prior to the event and will have immediate access to Residuals and Biosolids starting May 11.

Attendees that register during the live event, will receive access to Residuals and Biosolids approximately 20 minutes after registering.

CANCELLATIONS AND SUBSTITUTIONS

Residuals and Biosolids registration fees are non-refundable and non-transferable. No refunds will be granted for unattended events or early termination of attendance, problems or disruptions in the virtual platform where the sessions are being streamed or any other incidents during the virtual conference, which are beyond the control of the conference organizers.

Registrants may not transfer their access to Residuals and Biosolids to another individual, share access through their individual username and password, or make information within the Residuals and Biosolids Experience available to unregistered persons.

FUNCTIONALITY OF THE VIRTUAL PLATFORM

WEF has contracted with third parties to provide a high-quality virtual experience. WEF cannot, however, guarantee that the WEF Mobile App or Virtual Content will operate without any interruptions or malfunctions. WEF cannot control nor is responsible for the availability, quality, operation or support services for the participant's internet provider or speed and availability of the overall internet traffic and network. WEF accepts no liability or responsibility if the WEF Mobile App and/or Virtual Content are interrupted, partially restricted, otherwise inaccessible in whole or in part or impossible as a result of an event beyond WEF's reasonable control.

MEMBER RATE QUALIFICATIONS

In order to qualify for member rates, you must have a current individual WEF membership, valid through the date of the event you are attending. You should have your own individual member ID number. Though your institution may be a member of WEF, you must maintain an individual WEF membership to be eligible to receive the member rate. For more information on membership types, check here.

If you are not a WEF member or your membership lapses and is not renewed by the time of the event, you will either have to join/renew your membership or pay the non-member rate for the event.

Students that are not a member of WEF must pay the student nonmember rate and provide proof of student status.

PAYMENT

Full payment is due when you register online with a credit card (VISA, MasterCard and American Express). Upon completion of your registration, you will receive an immediate confirmation email from our registration partner Maritz Global Events.
