wef membership

Since 1928, the Water Environment Federation (WEF) has guided technological development in the water community. As a leading source of water quality information, WEF works to provide its members, public officials, and the general public with the necessary tools to engage in or learn ways to improve quality of life through the sustainable management of water resources, water protection, and water and wastewater treatment.

The benefits

Enhance Your Industry Skills

Stay on top of advances, trends, and proven solutions through WEF's highly regarded technical education and training opportunities.

Facilitate Lifelong Learning

Choose your training and earn CEUs and PDHs through WEF's educational programs, including: WEFTEC®, WEF Specialty Conferences, hot topic seminars, workshops, and free webcasts.

Champion Productive Relationships

Within WEF and Member Associations (MAs), members work to help each other develop and grow professionally, while building valuable relationships with industry partners and prospects.

Enrich Your Leadership Potential

Gain leadership skills that can be applied to your career by volunteering your service to WEF and a WEF MA committee.

Increase Awareness and Recognition in Your Field

Each year, WEF presents awards for outstanding contribution to the water environment profession.

Master Your Career Goals

Tap into the leading career network for the water community, WEF's Job Bank, where dozens of new jobs are posted each month.

The foundation of WEF membership is the philosophy that every individual member, working in water quality, contributes to making our world a better place to live. WEF offers a variety of membership options that are designed to meet the specific needs of our community.

Annual Membership Dues*
