

The Utility Management Conference is regarded as the leading, most informative, and most prestigious management conference available. Connect with fellow water and wastewater managers and professionals to learn the latest approaches, practices, processes, and research in all aspects of utility management.

The Utility
Management
Conference™

AWWA | WEF

February 25–28 | Hyatt Regency Orange County
Anaheim, California

2020

This conference is jointly hosted by the Water Environment Federation and American Water Works Association, in cooperation with the California Water Environment Association and the Water Research Foundation.