

Dean Miller is the 2018-2019 Speaker-Elect of the House of Delegates for the Water Environment Federation (WEF), an international organization of water quality professionals headquartered in Alexandria, Virginia.

Dean has been working in the water profession for more than 30 years and is currently the President of Miller Environmental, Inc., a contract operations firm.

A WEF member since 1987, Dean has spent the last six years in the House of Delegates as a representative of the Pennsylvania Water Environment Association (PWEA) and as a Delegate At Large. During that time Dean has been involved in numerous work groups and every Standing Committee. Dean was also Team Captain of the PWEA Operations Challenge Team that finished fourth overall in 1991.

Dean is also an active member of the Pennsylvania Water Environment Association (PWEA) where he served as President in 2010 – 2011. Dean serves on several WEF Committees and PWEA Committees and is a member of the Ted Moses Sludge Shovelers Society, the oldest Sludge Shovelers Society in the Water Environment Federation.

Dean holds water and wastewater certifications in three states.
